

Tuberculosis (TB)

is still present in Japan.

Number of newly registered patients with TB (2023)

10,096

Estimated death toll (2023)

1,587

For the early detection of TB

If you have a cough or phlegm lasting two weeks or more, or if you experience a persistent mild fever or fatigue, seek medical attention as soon as possible.

Prevent

Common respiratory infections

Seasonal flu

COVID-19

Bacterial pneumonia

Etc.

To prevent respiratory infections

Effective infection control measures include good ventilation, hand washing, hand disinfection, and wearing a mask.

ORGANIZER

MHLW

Ministry of Health,
Labour and Welfare of Japan

SUPPORT

Cabinet Agency
for Infectious Disease Crisis Management

MEXT

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION, CULTURE, SPORTS,
SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY-JAPAN

The Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare's website about tuberculosis

